

Chemistry Department Intended Learning Outcomes

Students will demonstrate:

1. Understanding of fundamental concepts of chemistry.
2. Ability to conduct experiments using appropriate techniques and equipment.
3. Effective communication skills, including interpersonal communication (oral and written).
4. Ability to locate and understand primary literature in chemistry and general science publications.
5. Ability to recognize hazards, conduct experiments safely and to manage chemicals, including chemical wastes.