Transfers
¹ IRA—Beginning in 2007, individuals can make one lifetime transfer from their IRA to an HSA, subject to the contribution limits applicable for the year of the transfer. Additional information can be found at www.irs.gov . ² HSA/MSA—If you instruct the custodian of your HSA or MSA to transfer funds directly to the custodian of another HSA, the transfer is not considered a rollover. There is no limit on the number of these transfers. You do not need to include the amount transferred in income, deduct it as a contribution, or include it as a distribution on IRS Form 8889, line 12a.

Move It. Double It.

Get double interest on your HealthEquity® HSA. Just transfer or roll over $250 or more from another HSA to HealthEquity and get up to $25 total. Get full details at www.healthequity.com/double-it.
